

Pollie Pedal '19 Registration

In 2019, we will cycling in our 14th year of PolliePedal!

A unique 3-day road cycling event designed for cyclists who are seeking a challenging ride through the beautiful Tasmanian landscape, and for those who like adventure, friendship and engaging with the local community.

Join us as we head on our great southern Tasmanian adventure!

Starting down the picturesque peninsula at Port Arthur, we will wind our way through Nubeena, Eaglehawk Neck, Dunalley, Sorell finishing our day in Cambridge. Saturday will see us travel through the Eastern Shore, up to Richmond via Grasstree Hill, through Orielson, Tea Tree, Brighton up the Derwent River, Molesworth to finish at Berriedale. The final leg will see us do a loop up to Fern Tree, down to Longley, Margate, Blackmans Bay, Tarroona, through to finish at Long Beach Reserve, in Sandy Bay.

Since the inaugural ride in February 2006, Diabetes Tasmania has worked in collaboration with the Hon. Guy Barnett MP to stage PolliePedal - this support has been invaluable and has helped to make the event such a success.

Riders are asked to provide their own bicycle and cycling equipment.

Your participation donation includes: accommodation, most meals, jersey, daily laundry service, support vehicles and staff.

More information regarding each stage will be available soon from www.everydayhero.com.au/event/polliepedal2019 where you can also sign up to fundraise your participation donation (if need be).
